

sentence of said section after the word "obstructions" the following: "Unless it be in such places as the superintendent may think impracticable," and that all of said section beginning with the word "Provide" in line fourteen of said section and ending with the word "place" in line eighteen be stricken out.

SEC. 8. That section eleven be so amended as to substitute the word "overseer" for the word "supervisors" wherever the word "supervisors" appears in said section. That section twelve of said act be amended by inserting between the word "with" in line two of said section and the word "the" in said line the words "or without."

Section 11
amended.

Section 12
amended.

SEC. 9. That if in the judgment of the commissioners of Haywood county that the financial condition of the county will not justify the levy of a special road tax then the county commissioners may refuse to levy any special road tax as provided for in this act, and in chapter two hundred and forty-nine of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety seven: Provided further, that if the county commissioners shall refuse to levy any special road tax it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to notify the superintendent of roads on the first Monday of June, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and it shall be the duty of the superintendent of roads to turn over all the tools and other property that was purchased by the county, to be used in repairing and constructing public roads, and the county commissioners shall make such disposition of the aforesaid tools and property as they shall deem best: Provided further, that if the county commissioners shall refuse to levy any special road tax all the duties incumbent upon the superintendent of roads shall cease by the second Monday of June, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, except such assistance as he may give the county commissioners in appointing road overseers as provided for in this act: Provided further, that in any subsequent year that the county commissioners shall decide to levy a special road tax then the superintendent of roads shall be required to perform the duties as required of him in the preceding sections of this act, and in chapter two hundred and forty-nine of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven: Provided further, that if the county commissioners shall refuse to levy a special road tax then the public roads shall be laid out, changed and constructed as provided for and prescribed in chapter fifty of The Code.

Commissioners
may refuse to levy special road
tax.

Proviso.

Duties of superintendent shall cease when commissioners refuse
to levy tax.

Proviso.

When commissioners decide to levy special tax.

SEC. 10. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 7th day of March, A. D. 1899.